

Code of Conduct of the good participant of the Virtual Panama Jazz Festival

The Virtual Panama Jazz Festival is a friendly space where everyone should feel welcome, safe, and comfortable when learning, sharing ideas, and enjoying the activities we offer.

We are committed to providing an inclusive, open experience for all people promoting equality in all senses, rejecting any discrimination. We hope that all the participants of this event: artists, speakers, attendees, media, organizers, sponsors, and the general public who access our platforms comply with our code of conduct.

All participants have the right to interact, share ideas, exchange opinions, ask questions, and provide comments; when doing so, it is essential to take into account the following guidelines:

- ♪ All participants must register to enter the events, and the data provided in the registration form must be accurate and valid.
- ♪ When creating a profile on the Festival's Sched platform, the data provided must be truthful and consistent with the event.
- ♪ Participants must be respectful in any question or comment they post in the festival's virtual spaces, such as Sched, Zoom, and Social Networks.
- ♪ Participants must be respectful of different opinions and be responsible for listening, watching, or reading carefully before commenting.
- ♪ The comments made should be focused on contributing to the topic constructively and positively.
- ♪ Harassment will not be tolerated, including cyberbullying, trolling, use of inappropriate language, sexually explicit language and images, political attacks, racist language or images, personal attacks, and posts that demean, insult, threaten or disparage the work of others.
- ♪ Participants will have access to video and chat content. All this information is for the exclusive use of the cultural and educational exchange generated in the festival; the appropriation and use of this content for other purposes is prohibited.
- ♪ These policies apply to all virtual spaces of the festival and all participants and attendees.

www.panamajazzfestival.com